OUTLINING TERMS
OF PEACE TO U. S.

Foreign Office Discredits Reports in Danish and Other Newspapers.

NO ANSWER TO POPE YET

Reply to Papal Proposals Not On Its Way to Rome as Declared by Matthias Erzberger, Clerical Leader, Associated Press Hears.

By Associated Press.
BERLIN, Sept. 18.—The German foreign office has issued a statement given to the Associated Press today denying stories appearing in Danish and other foreign newspapers to the effect that the German government has indirectly communicated its peace terms to Washington or that Wilhelmstrasse has sent out trial balloons for the purpose of sounding sentiment in the United States.

The German foreign office further informed the Associated Press that the rumors were promptly discredited on the strength of the peace terms ascribed to Germany and further that the fact that there was no occasion for Germany to address the Washington government in this respect.

The assertion made by Matthias Erzberger, the clerical leader in the Reichstag, that Germany's note in reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposals already was on its way to Rome, was also denied in official quarters. The Centre leader informed his electors to this effect in the course of two meetings which he addressed in "Wurttemberg on Sunday."

SPAIN MUST GET SAFE CONDUCT FOR LUXEMBURG
BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 18.—In private circles it was learned by the Associated Press today that the Argentine government has asked Spain to take the responsibility of obtaining from the American and British governments the safe conduct of Count Luxemburg, who recently was given his passport, arguing that he was soon to leave for Spain on a Spanish vessel. Accordingly, it was said, the Spanish ambassador has asked the government to negotiate to this end.

FRENCH REPEL TEUTONS AFTER SHARP BATTLE.
PARIS, Sept. 18.—German troops after a violent bombardment south of the Meuse river last night launched an attack and reached the French line towards the Neufchateau road. The French official statement issued this afternoon says that after a sharp fight the Teutons were ejected from the position, losing heavily and leaving prisoners in the hands of the French. The artillery was active on both sides of the Meuse river in the region of the Fosse woods.

COAL PRODUCTION DROPS.

Serious Shortage of Bituminous This Winter May Be Result.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Reports to the Geological Survey on production of bituminous coal show a decrease during August at the rate of more than 3,000,000 tons a month and indicates that a shortage of coal this winter feared by many government officials may be a reality, unless production shows a decided increase.

Indications are that while there will be sufficient anthracite for domestic consumption in the East, there may be an insufficiency of bituminous to keep production plants going at present capacity.

Courier Readers Are Asked to Help Compile a Roll of Honor.

The Courier is compiling a list of men from Connellsville and vicinity now in Uncle Sam's service. Already it has reached tremendous proportions, but there are many not included in it. Parents or other relatives of enlisted men are requested to fill out a coupon which appears on another page of this issue and thus assist us in making this roll of honor as complete as possible.

The ROLL OF HONOR will be printed when The Courier has reason to believe it is reasonably comprehensive. With the cooperation of soldiers' relatives this paper will be able to present a complete directory of coke region boys fighting in the great war for democracy and peace.

TRENCH TO CUT OFF MINE FIRE NOW WELL UNDER WAYSAVE COAL BY KEEPING COOL
SAID GARFIELD.

Cooler homes this winter is one of the ways the country must meet the coal crisis, says Fuel Administrator Garfield.

"If every family will reduce the temperature of its house at least 5 degrees, it will mean millions of tons saved," he said, opening the fuel conservation campaign.

"This is not a hardship, it is a health measure for most Americans live in super-heated houses."

"The coal supply can be conserved by more economical methods of firing, by sifting ashes, by switching the furnace door and by heating only the parts of the house in use."

COUNCIL ASPIRANTS
TELL CIVIC LEAGUE
WHAT THEY WILL DO

G. W. Campbell, Dr. C. W. Utis and Daniel Sinclair Make Known Their Platforms.

Speeches by several councilmanic aspirants, in which they professed their interest in clean city government, featured last night's Civic League mass meeting in the Baptist church. About 70 men were present. George W. Campbell declared that "we must make Connellsville safe for our children." "Too many young people are going astray here," he said. He intimated that if elected he would do everything "if not to entirely silence vice, at least to suppress it as much as possible."

Dr. C. W. Utis declared that it was not on his own initiative that he had come out for council, but that the West Side people wanted somebody to come out. He called attention to the election of three school directors this year, saying that the importance of these positions was generally underestimated.

Daniel Sinclair, another councilmanic candidate, would not respond when called on for a speech. L. L. West, present councilman, and candidate for re-election, declared that, if elected, he would "do the best he knew how for the people of the town, morally and every other way."

The meeting was opened by Rev. W. J. Everhart, in the absence of President W. N. Leche. Rev. J. L. Prouditt led in prayer. Rev. Everhart asked if the increased registration was "good for us or the other fellow," pointing out the big jump in the West Side wards.

In discussing the possibility of illegal actions at the elections, O. O. Elcher declared that the Third ward be "all right." "I don't anticipate any illegalities there," he said. "All we must look for is the correct count." Smith Grim remarked that 38 men who wished to register Saturday had been challenged, in the two West Side wards.

The league will make a special effort to see that every man marks his own ballot.

Subscription papers were passed around. The league has already incurred $40 expenses, and expects to have some more. President Leche declared there would be some law suits, undoubtedly, and they cost money. There was one subscription of $25 and half a dozen of 25 cents, with others scattered in between.

Frank Gano, former city patrolman, told a few things about the last carnival that was here, as he had observed them.

Rev. Tucker E. Wilson, colored, of the West Side, made a short talk in which he pointed out that the present election meant more to his race than to the white race.

Some doubt was expressed as to whether Judge E. H. Reppert would be in court today to decide upon the application for overseers which the league has requested for each ward. He was out of town yesterday. Judge Van Swearingen would be disqualified from making the appointments, being a candidate himself.

Abolishes Infantile Quarantine.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Sept. 18.—Dr. S. L. Jepson, state commissioner of health today ordered abolished all quarantines established because of the infantile paralysis epidemic. Explaining his action he said the situation throughout the state was materially improved.

Contractor Ramage Begins Excavation to Save Township Properties.

FUND OF $5,000 IS RAISED

With the equipment and means now available, it is believed that the fire in the Connellsville coke coal seam on the property of John Wishart in East Connellsville can be effectively cut off and left to burn itself out without danger of extending over a larger area.

A fund of $5,000 has been subscribed by parties resident in the vicinity of the fire and others whose properties would be damaged by it if not soon brought under control, and a contract has been entered into with John Ramage of Fairview to complete the excavation undertaken some months ago with a view to cutting the fire off from the main body of the coal. Contractor Ramage moved his steam shovel to the ground last week and yesterday got things in readiness to proceed with his contract.

Upwards of 6,000 cubic yards of material will have to be removed before the cut is finished that will completely isolate the burning section. The cut will reach a depth of 30 or more feet before the strata overlying the coal are removed at all points in advance of the fire. The cut, which follows a more or less zig-zag course, will be made to the bottom of the coal seam and thus provide an open space as a barrier against a further extension of the fire. It is thought that at some points in the partially excavated trench the fire has extended beyond the line, in which case more extensive cutting will have to be done than would have been necessary had the trench been cut through promptly after it was started.

The fire started, it is thought, from a fire built outside the mine opening by men engaged in getting out coal during the bitter cold days of last February. It was supposed to have been completely extinguished at the time but later it was found to have eaten its way through old mine workings whence it was communicated to the solid coal.

Mr. Wishart began the excavation of a trench to cut off the fire, which he succeeded in doing only in part. The undertaking being rather more than he himself could handle, neighboring property owners, among whom are Dr. C. D. Peterson and P. J. Torrey and others, became interested and to their efforts is due the present organized and systematic plan to prevent further damage from the fire.

Residents in Poplar Grove and East Connellsville had become very much alarmed over the possibility of the fire reaching over the whole coal-bearing territory in that section and its consequent damage to the surface properties due to subsidence which would occur as soon as the supporting coal measure is consumed by the fire. Some of the residents have already suffered a little annoyance from the fumes arising from the fire and which are carried to their homes every time the wind veers in that direction, and particularly in the evenings or on days when the air is moist and heavy. The coal having been mined from under the greater part of the surface in this section, with only ribs and stumps remaining to support the surface, the progress of the fire would be much more rapid and much more difficult of extinguishment once it extends any considerable distance beyond its present limits, within which it is hoped to confine it.

In addition to the loss of the coal underlying an acre or more of surface, and the damage to his property, resulting from the work of cutting off the fire, it is understood to have already cost Mr. Wishart in the neighborhood of $4,000 for labor, teams and material used in attempting to stay its progress.

PIPE STRIKES WOMAN

Carried on Wagon. It Swings Her Back, Preventing Crossing.

A serious accident was narrowly escaped this morning when a woman tried to cross the street car track at Arch street and Crawford avenue between a wagon and the 16 o'clock South Connellsville car, coming into town. The wagon carried a long iron pipe, which prevented the woman from crossing, struck her several times in the face and almost threw her down, as the wagon swung around the corner and the pipe swung with it. The victim, however, managed to get back to the sidewalk before the car came up to her.

It was a humiliating experience for her, but the trade which she was engaged in for the benefit of the wagon driver must have satisfied her to a certain extent.

DUNBAR MAN HURT

Thrown from Car When Another Collides With It.

Henry Malone, 35 years old, of Dunbar, was badly injured this morning at the mine of the American Mangrove company at Dunbar where he is employed. He was standing on the end of a gondola car when another car ran into it. He received cuts on the leg, an injury to the back and suffered from loss of blood. The injured man was brought to Connellsville and removed to the Cottage State hospital for treatment.

George Kelepa, of Blinn, 54 years old, was admitted to the hospital last night for treatment of lacerations of the face, Kelepa, who is delirious, told the hospital authorities that he was struck by an automobile.

Two Ballots Used Tomorrow,
Be Sure To Mark Both Correctly

Each voter who goes to the polls tomorrow will receive two ballots: his party ballot, and also a non-partisan ballot. On the former will be printed the names of the party candidates, including, in the city of Connellsville, the candidates for school director. The non-partisan ballot will contain the names of the candidates for judge of the court of common pleas and for judge of the orphans' court in all precincts of the county and in the city of Connellsville it will also contain the names of the candidates for mayor, city councilmen and city controller.

To vote correctly in Connellsville the voter must mark a cross (X) in the small square following the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. One candidate is to be nominated for judge of the court of common pleas, one for judge of the orphans' court; one for mayor, one for city controller and four for city councilmen.

To vote a party ballot a cross-mark will be made opposite each candidate to be voted for.

Be sure that you receive both ballots and be sure that you mark both of them so as to avoid errors.

MORE WORKERS BADLY NEEDED
BY LOCAL RED CROSS CHAPTER

Small Number of Women Doing Big Things But Many More Must Assist.

LIST OF COMPLETED WORK

A report of the really marvelous amount of work done by a comparatively few women for the Red Cross, and an appeal for more workers to complete at once one-fourth of the local chapter's assignment, were made at a mass meeting of the organization in the auditorium of the Carnegie Free Library last night. About 40 women were present.

Dr. Katherine Wakefield, in asking for more workers, said: "Our boys are over there now. Americans are being wounded and killed daily. American soldiers positively need the supplies which we are to make." Especially are workers needed for the sewing. Dr. Wakefield said. The amount of work that has been done is astounding, considering that there have never been more than 12 women present at the rooms at one time.

Mrs. J. F. Kerr, chairman of the workroom, submitted her report of finished work, as follows: Bed sheets, 512; draw sheets, 341; pillow cases, 701; operating sheets, 92; hospital bed sheets, 51. Mrs. Kerr supplied named Dr. Wakefield's plea for workers, saying that supplies of all sorts are needed and everyone is asked to help, if only for an hour or two a week.

Dunbar is working on 200 dozen of table napkins, it was learned.

TWO CITY DOCTORS
HAVE SUPERVISION
OVER LOCAL BOYS

Captain E. B. Edie and Lieutenant A. J. Colborn Minister to Draftees.

HAPPENINGS AT CAMP LEE

Dr. A. J. Colborn Writes Interesting Account of What's Doing at Petersburg Where First Contingent of Local New Army Men Are Training.

Connellsville boys at Camp Lee, when they are homesick or ill, feel that they are not entirely forsaken when they find two physicians from home, ministering to them. Captain E. B. Edie is one of the big men of the medical corps and Lieutenant A. J. Colborn is working under his supervision. The latter writes the following interesting letter about life in camp to The Courier:

BASIC HOSPITAL, CAMP LEE, Petersburg, Va., Sept. 16, 1917.—When I left Connellsville about 500 of my friends asked me to send them cards of course I promised all to do so. As it would take a lot of time and many stamps to write each one a card, I will take this means of writing to all of them. First will say I came near freezing the first two nights in camp. Since Friday we have had almost constant rain and it's very muddy and disagreeable, but everybody seems happy and contented. I am quartermaster and mess at the temporary hospital. Have seen on duty one day at hospital since here. Yesterday I was assigned to duty under Captain Edith B. Edie who, by the way, is very popular with the higher officers and will make his mark before the war is over. I report to him every morning at 8 o'clock and he has assigned me to examine draftees.

This is some camp, covering 5,500 acres and is four miles from one end of the buildings to the other. The barracks are built as to keep comfortable, for privates as well as officers, and the privates are better or equally as well fed as the officers. The bare hospital which is not quite ready to occupy, covers between 50 and 60 acres and will be so equipped as to give the unfortunate the best of care, under the guidance of such men as Drs. E. W. Day and Laurence Litchfield, who are both here and are busy getting things in shape. There are 25 to 30 of us (medical officers) in one barracks, and we have some time. Among the bunch is Captain Thomas of Lenoire, best known in Westmoreland county as "Pappy" Thomas, who is an ex-probationary of that county. The first thing he asked me was if I was an E. R., and the next if I knew "Jimmy" Doyle. "Pappy" is the champion story teller in the barracks.

Lieutenant Hood of West Newton, is terribly homesick here, due to the fact that he has an Indian here. I saw, Surris Colborn, John Oler and Young Joy today. They report all in their crowd well and having a good time.

This week we are all going to do some real work, especially after the 20th of the month.

The camp is four miles from Petersburg and 136 miles from Washington. It would make a nice auto ride from Connellsville. I am sure any one who makes the trip will never regret it as this is a sight long to be remembered and no ordinary mind is able to imagine the immensity of such a camp.

I will be very busy for some time and will have but little time to write, but will be glad to hear from any of my friends; who will think it worth while to write.

A. J. COLBORN.

Don't Dose the Stomach

Treat Catarrh by Nature's Own Method—Every Strain of Hyomel Brings Relief.

Nearly everyone who has catarrh knows how foolish it is to try and cure it by dosing the stomach. Temporary relief may be given, but a cure seldom comes.

Until recently your physician would have said the only way to cure catarrh would be a change of climate but now with Hyomel you can carry a health-giving climate in your vest pocket and by breathing it a few minutes four times a day, treat yourself successfully.

The complete Hyomel outfit costs but little and consists of an inhaler that can be carried in the vest pocket, a medicine dropper and a bottle of Hyomel. The inhaler lasts a lifetime and if one bottle is not enough, an extra bottle of Hyomel can be obtained for a small sum. It is the most successful of all remedies advertised for catarrh, and is the only one that follows nature in the method of treating the discharges of the respiratory organs. Remember, that Hyomel does not help you, A. C. Claiborne will refund your money.—Adv.

AUTUMN-1917-WINTER

Fall Opening

This Annual Introduction of Autumn Fashions Has Come to be of the Utmost Interest and Importance.

NOT only does it usher in the Autumn season proper, but it covers the situation of the new styles completely, presenting the modes from the recognized stylists in an orderly array for quicker and clearer understanding of the changes in line and treatment, and for observing the new ideas carried to such successful completion in the styles on exhibition.

Recognizing that "style" governs all merchandise, from gowns to gloves and from hats to handkerchiefs, this exposition has been carefully planned to present a comprehensive picture of all the styles.

The most interesting section of the store will naturally be that of the outer apparel and millinery and the displays in these sections will be the most interesting in years.

This store then bids you welcome to its Formal Opening of the Autumn and Winter Season Wednesday, Sept. 19th

WAR FILM PLEAS

"The Italian Battle Front" Presented to Large Audiences.

Big crowds saw the motion picture, "The Italian Battle Front," at the Paramount theatre yesterday afternoon and last night and all conceded it to be the best of its kind ever shown here.

The brief bits from the war fronts as shown in the various news weeklies do not compare with this presentation of life as it actually is along the Italian-Austrian battle line, taken as it was under the cinematographic direction of the Italian army and its tremendous task in breaking down the Austrian resistance can now be realized fully.

The sub-titles are in Italian and English so that people of both races may know what the scenes depict.

The picture will be repeated today and tomorrow with two shows daily, at 2 and 8 P. M. It is in eight reels and the showing lasts three hours. Many loyal Italian-Americans attended last night but their American allies and friends were also there in large numbers.

MORE WORKERS NEEDED BY RED CROSS CHAPTER

Miss Clark, head of the knitting division, reported this morning: Wash cloths, 50; sponges, 216; socks, 50 pair. In addition 32 pair of socks are being knitted, and the yarn for 52 comfort sets, composed of sweater, wristlets, and muffler, and for nine extra mufflers and two sweaters and two sweaters has been given out. Dunbar will knit 20 complete sets. Miss Clark has received the following donations:

One pair socks, Miss Rosema Mitchell and Mrs. A. W. Bowman; yarn for one pair socks, Mrs. J. M. Kerr; five pounds of yarn for socks, the W. C. T. U., of Mill Run; $10 worth of yarn, Coke Queen Lodge, auxiliary of B. of L. E. & T. Mrs. Charles Davidson has donated one set knitted of grey yarn, and will donate one of khaki colored yarn.

Owing to the approach of cold weather, the Red Cross especially needs these knitted articles. There is plenty of yarn for distribution at the work rooms in the Federal building. The Red Cross will knit 100 complete outfits for each cantonment and 65 for each mobilization camp. Conneltsville's share is to furnish two complete outfits. The local chapter has been asked to send 100 sets within a month, and the yarn for but 72 has been given out.

Mrs. J. M. Young was put in charge of assembling the different articles needed.

As for the hospital equipment, Conneltsville's assignment is to furnish 750 articles of each kind: 750 bed sheets, for instance, 750 draw sheets, etc. The aim of the chapter headquarters is to get enough of these supplies finished to send in one-fourth of the chapter's full quota. While more than a fourth of the bed sheets have been finished, the chapter members are far from their goal in hospital bed sheets, pajamas and night shirts, and other articles, and 187 of each thing must be finished before anything is sent in.

H. M. Riddle Tells How Nerv-Worth Banished His Various Sufferings.

Mr. Riddle is a well known resident of Washington, Pa. Note how he expressed his appreciation recently to his Washington druggist:

"Nerv-Worth has been a blessing to me. For 25 years I was troubled with a nervous condition following a stroke of paralysis. I lost weight and strength. My stomach was bad and I would fill up with gas after eating. I tried various remedies and doctors. Got some relief but it was not satisfactory. Nerv-Worth was recommended to me by another of its users and I thought I would give it a trial. It helped me wonderfully. The nervousness is about all gone, have no trouble with my stomach and gas, am gaining weight and strength right along. I can recommend Nerv-Worth to anyone in the same condition I was in and feel that it will help them."

Meysersdale.

MEYERSDALE, Sept. 17.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the sixteenth annual fair of the Meysersdale Fair and Race association tomorrow, Tuesday, and to continue Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. If the weather conditions prove favorable this year's fair is expected to break all records in point of attendance, as the attractions arranged for are greater than ever. As the Meysersdale Fair and Race association is a member of the Coal, Oil and Iron circuit, the racing program will be exceptionally strong, as many fast horses will be entered in the various running, trotting and pacing events. A new feature at this year's fair will be the boys' and girls' livestock judging contest, under the supervision of the County Farm bureau. Among the free daily attractions, the most sensational will be Prof. Ed R. Hutchinson, the Human Bomb, who will make daily ascensions with a monster balloon to which is attached a huge bomb which explodes high in the air, ejecting Prof. Hutchinson, who descends safely to earth by means of a parachute.

On Friday De Lloyd Thompson, one of the most skillful and most daring aviators of the world, will loop-the-loop, fly upside down, bombard a fort from the sky and do other seemingly impossible stunts with his aeroplanes. Besides these attractions at the fair grounds during the week, visitors to Meysersdale will also have the opportunity to see the big Arena Shows during the entire week, beginning on Monday and closing on Saturday night under the auspices of the Meysersdale Fire company, which has selected fair week as Firemen's Jubilee week.

If Food Disagrees Take Magnesia Neutrate

Nearly everybody suffers at times after eating. Many can rarely eat without suffering the most excruciating agony. Some people call this indigestion, some dyspepsia, others gastritis, but no matter what you call it, no matter how many remedies or how many doctors you may have tried— instant and almost invariable relief may be obtained by taking in a little hot water a teaspoonful of a simple neutrate, such as Magnesia Neutrate. This instantly neutralizes the acid and stops food fermentation, the cause of nine-tenths of all stomach trouble, and thus enables the stomach to proceed with digestion in a peaceful, normal manner. Care should be taken to insist on getting the genuine Magnesia Neutrate, which, owing to its marvelous properties, is now sold by druggists everywhere, under a binding guarantee of satisfaction, or money back.—Adv.

Meat Shortage to Last, So Plan for Next Year's Planting

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The meat shortage that is now wide will continue for several years according to statements made to a congress of livestock men by Secretary Houston and Food Administrator Hoover. More than 125 cattle raisers met here to confer on what should be done and they were told that the condition is not a temporary one nor is it confined to the United States.

With this condition before us and made plain by such high authorities, said Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, let every city gardener in the country look to next year.

"You have one good lesson, now profit by that experience and see what the soil needs for best results next year. The commission will answer your questions in this regard for you know the garden will work all winter."

"With this statement as to meat conditions every gardener who can roll as a soldier of the soil to produce food for his family. The Kitchen Door has a duty to perform—a patriotic duty that he must not shirk. Indications are that we will have two million men under arms thousands upon thousands of men have been cheered on their way to training camps. But they now become not producers and must be fed."

"The women have broken all records in the matter of canning and now it is up to the gardeners to come right back with another record-breaking year so that the canning and drying may be kept up."

At the Theatres

THE ARCADE.

"THE BELLE ISLE BEAUTIES"—To a very big matinee, the biggest in a long time, and composed mostly of women, and one of the "was" very liberal with its applause, the Belle Isle Beauties yesterday at the Arcade presented a mighty good show in The Broadway Revue. Never before has a matinee audience taken so kindly to a show. But the Belle Isle Beauties might well be called the show de luxe as it has appropriate scenery and appointments refined dialogue, all the singing numbers, that are incident to the theme are taken from Broadway productions, the principles all appearing in evening clothes, and the chorus of all handsome blonde girls in pretty bright new dresses, the cast has talent and the performance has the swing to it that goes with a first class production of 50 people. Lew Abe Glick, a polished Hebrew comedian, won the audience at the very beginning with his quaint delineation of the likeable Jew of the "Buzzy Izzy" type. Mr. Glick is a real fun maker, the good, clean wholesome kind of fun. He is ably seconded by Donald Mach an Irish comedian of the right sort, portraying the old time educated Irish gentleman Eddie Loop, the stuttering country kid, stayed out on the stage 18 minutes, took four encores and finally had to admit that he didn't know any more jokes or tunes upon his musical instrument. And the Belle Isle Trio barnstormers put plenty of comedy in their selections, also sang until they were exhausted. Even the chorus has new stuff, especially in their Betty Boliver number, when they proved themselves not only good singers but were good extemporaneous funmakers a rare talent among girls.

THE SOISSON.

Another of the Soisson's bill of high grade vaudeville was presented to delighted audiences last night. The five acts are interesting every minute and all the performers are of the finest type though secured at the last minute, owing to the cancellation of the Eddie Collins Revue, which was to have played the Soisson. Harry Gouldson is clever and he has a good voice. He was recalled again and again last night after singing his funniest number, "Whoa, Johnny, Whoa." Brandon & Taylor are a pair of entertainers who have so much fun themselves during their act that those in the audience find themselves forced to laugh with them. Lots of their comedy seems to be impromptu, but it gets over with a bang. The Bernard trio put on as a feature of their act a medley of Scotch songs and dances. Charles Ross a musical comedian, and Vera and Wilson a comedy duo who feature a Hawaiian number, complete the bill. All next week, DeWolf's Funmakers will hold forth at the Soisson. The Gray Ghost, a great new serial, starts Thursday. The other screen attractions are Tuesday for Mayor—the peoples candidate—Adv. The Fatal Ring Wednesday.

NOT TOO LATE TO CAN SURPLUS PRODUCTS OF THE SUMMER GARDENS

Can Be Preserved With Comparative Little Expense as Latest Discoveries in the Art Have Proven.

It is not too late now for the war gardeners to begin thinking about canning their surplus products, says today's bulletin from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, co-operating with the newspapers in urging food production and conservation. Not only the garden surplus should be canned but when vegetables are plentiful in the markets, the patriotic housewife will help save civic waste by preserving all the vegetables that her purse will allow. If vegetables are high in price the plan is likely to be made that it does not pay to can them. But this year, when every ounce of food saved counts on the great total cost of preservation should not be taken into consideration as a barrier to thrift. If vegetables are expensive now, think what they will be when the "moon flies".

REPORT OF RED CROSS WAR COUNCIL ON ITS ACTIVITIES SINCE U. S. ENTERED WAR

Elaborate Plans for Relief of the War Stricken Countries.

FIRST AID TO AMERICANS

The Comfort and Welfare of Our Own Soldiers Receiving Careful Attention; Distressed Natives Given Aid; How Dollars We Have Will be Used

WASHINGTON, SEPT. 17.—Henry P. Davison, as chairman, issued on behalf of the war council of the American Red Cross, a report concerning the activities of the American Red Cross in Europe since the war with Germany was declared. The report says in part:

The war council of the American Red Cross, since its appointment on May 10, appropriated up to and including August 31, the sum of $12,239,581.87 for work in France, of which $10,692,501 is for use in France.

The general lines of activity undertaken in France by the American Red Cross have been determined after a careful survey of the situation by the Red Cross commission. The purposes may be outlined as follows:

1. To establish and maintain hospitals for soldiers in the American army in France.

2. To establish and maintain canteens, rest houses, recreation huts and other means of supplying the American soldiers with such comforts and recreation as the army authorities may approve.

3. To establish and maintain in France canteens, rest houses, recreation huts and other means of supplying comforts and recreation for the soldiers in the armies of our allies.

4. To distribute hospital equipment and supplies of all kinds to military hospitals for soldiers of the American or allied armies.

5. To engage in civilian relief, including:

a—The care and education of destitute children;

b—Care of mutilated soldiers;

c—Care of sick and disabled soldiers;

d—Relief work in the devastated areas of France and Belgium, such as furnishing to the inhabitants of these districts agricultural implements, household goods, foods, clothing and such temporary shelter as will enable them to return to their homes;

e—To provide relief to and guard against the increase of tuberculosis.

6. To furnish relief for soldiers and civilians held as prisoners by the enemy and to give assistance to such civilians as are returned to France from time to time from the parts of Belgium and of France held by the enemy.

7. To supply financial assistance to committees, societies or individuals allied with the American Red Cross and carrying on relief work in Europe.

The war council has sent to Europe five separate commissions, each composed of representative Americans skilled in business administration, in medical and surgical work, and in other lines of Red Cross effort.

The work and policy of the American Red Cross will be determined and guided by the first-hand inquiries and the considered judgment of these commissions.

By reason of the crucial importance of the work in France, a Red Cross commission to France was dispatched just as soon as it could be organized after the appointment of the war council. That commission is composed of 14 leading experts in special lines of work. Each of the other commissions is similarly selected, and the work is nearly all volunteer or paid by private contribution.

The commission to Russia has recently arrived in Petrograd, and the commission to Italy reached Rome on August 31. Commissions to Rumania and Serbia are now on their way to those countries, and it is planned to send a commission to Great Britain also.

The Red Cross in France has assumed management of the war relief clearing house. It has taken over, under the control of the United States army, the administration of the American ambulance hospital at Neuilly.

The first and supreme object of American Red Cross care is our own army and navy.

The American army in France is received in large reception camps on the coast, and after several weeks of preliminary training the men are sent across the country to permanent training camps back of the firing lines.

Along the route followed by the troops the Red Cross has established infirmaries and rest stations, each in charge of an American trained nurse with an American man to assist her. Canteens are being established by the Red Cross at railway stations where American soldiers on reserve duty or on leave, and those returning to or from duty, many find rest and refreshment. Baths, food, games and other comforts will be made available at these canteens.

When American troops start for France the men are given comfort kits. Christmas parcels will be sent over later.

To be able to do its work without delay, the Red Cross is establishing warehouses at different points of importance in the French theatre of war. An appropriation of $500,000 has been voted to establish this service and provide its first stock of supplies.

In response to a cable from the commission in France, the war council appropriated $1,500,000 to purchase food stuff to be sent to France.

It has also appropriated $1,000,000 for the purchase of supplies in France; all for use in the hospital supply service.

A Red Cross transportation service through the co-operation of the French, British and Italian governments, the United States shipping board and the leading steamship and railroad companies has been established to handle the vast quantities of medical and relief supplies, now being shipped almost daily to France, Belgium, Serbia, Russia and other belligerent countries.

The French railroads are overtaxed, and their facilities must be available for the military needs of the army. The Red Cross has accordingly determined to develop its own motor transport service. The first unit of trucks has been forwarded.

In advance of the fighting forces the United States sent to the European battlefields six base hospitals organized during the last year by the Red Cross—the first United States army organization sent to Europe.

More than a dozen base hospitals organized by the American Red Cross are now seeing active service in France and others are rapidly being made ready for foreign service.

The American Red Cross has appropriated $1,000,000 for the relief of sick and wounded French soldiers and their families.

The number of destitute refugees in France in March, 1917, was stated by the minister of the interior to be 400,000, but there is reason to think that the number is much larger. The Red Cross plans to be able to take care temporarily of these returning populations.

The total appropriations for Red Cross work in the different countries of Europe is $12,239,581.87, of which $10,692,501 is to be expended for the different activities in France.
